Anti-Spam Legislation

Canada's Anti-Spam Legislation came into effect on July 1, 2014. You can read more about this new legislation at <http://fightspam.gc.ca> What this means for residents of Hounsfield Heights - Briar Hill and members of the community association, is that the association is no longer allowed to send you electronic communications (aka email) without your express consent.

At the end of June, an email was sent out to everyone on the community association's mailing list requesting this consent. If you received this email and followed the instructions contained within you will continue to receive email updates going forward. However, if you did not receive the email, did not respond to it, or were simply never on the mailing list in the first place, you can join it by sending an email to subscribe@hh-bh.ca with "Express Consent Granted" as the subject.

Similarly if you no longer want to receive email from the Hounsfield Heights/Briar Hill Community Association you may withdraw your consent at anytime by sending an email to unsubscribe@hh-bh.ca with "Unsubscribe" as the subject.

News from the Friends of Nose Hill

by Anne Burke

The first natural area to be protected in Calgary goes back to 1929.

In the 1960s, the value and fragility of the natural environment was fully appreciated. There was an argument for the educational value of natural areas, for school children in an urban setting. There was the urgent need to introduce and protect a new category of parkland - natural area parks, where youth could learn the natural history of the native land.

In 1973, there was an inventory of the flora and fauna, prior to urban growth, and a management plan. Calgary's Natural Areas, a Popular Guide, was about understanding, saving, and interpreting the parkland. By 1976, there was a focus, as civic duty, on the protection, preservation, and enhancement of the environment for all to enjoy. All natural areas that remained in the river valleys were to be preserved.

"From the ground up": Calgary Celebrating 100 Years of Parks contains photos "Overlooking Calgary from Nose Hill", 1973, and "Members of the Nose Hill Steering Committee on Nose Hill", 1980, displaying a copy of Nose Hill Park, Master Plan.

Nose Hill remains an inspiration for photos, paintings, and literary work, as well as scientific writings. We feature links on our website and publish (with permission) original work in our newsletter and on Facebook. We welcome submissions from the public.

Getting to know The City of Calgary Animal & Bylaw Services

Animal & Bylaw Services partners with Calgarians to foster safe, healthy and clean communities.

Our role:

- We provide many essential services that help build and maintain strong communities, including:
- Investigating and resolving bylaw-related citizen complaints, such as graffiti, untidy properties, and snow and ice concerns.
- Providing community education and awareness programs to teach Calgarians about bylaws, responsible pet ownership and responsible citizenship.
- Working with community groups and citizens to identify issues and build sustainable solutions.
- Funding community improvement projects, such as community cleanups and graffiti removal.
- Providing cat and dog related services, such as licensing and adoption services.

Role of Calgarians: Reporting problems

Reporting problems shows that citizens care about their communities and helps prevent further signs of disregard or decay from appearing.

For general information or to report a bylaw infraction, contact 311. Have the following information ready before calling:

- Your name, address and phone number.
- The address or location of the infraction.
- A brief and concise description of the complaint.

No anonymous complaints will be accepted. However, your personal information will remain confidential.

What happens next?

When a complaint is registered:

- The information is assigned a file number and is forwarded to a peace officer in that area.
- The officer will visit the location of the infraction. Complaints are handled on a priority basis, with precedence given to those reflecting a serious public safety implication.
- If there appears to be a bylaw infraction, the procedure will differ depending upon the type of infraction.
- Citizens may follow up on the status of their complaint by contacting 311 with the file number.

For more information about Calgary's bylaws or the role of Animal & Bylaw Services, please visit calgary.ca/bylawservices.

A Message From The Federation Of Calgary Communities Building Safe Communities Program

Meet New Neighbours!

Do your part to transition new neighbours into your community or to meet neighbours who have been in your community for a while that you haven't met yet. There are little things you can do that will go a long way for bringing neighbours together!

1. Introduce yourself to your neighbours and ask them a few questions about themselves. Tell them some information about yourself too. Some good starting points could be where they moved from or how long they've been in the community. Also, new neighbours could use information about the community association's programs and services, how to become a member, upcoming events, and even great local businesses or restaurants.
2. Welcome your neighbour by making a small yet caring gesture or gift. It can be the traditional 'pie', to a cup of coffee, some flowers or vegetables from your garden or even invite them for dinner. Moving is hard work and a warm meal will be appreciated by your new neighbours!
3. After introducing yourself, make the effort to wave, greet and make small talk with your neighbours continuously. This encourages friendly discussion and makes neighbours feel continuously welcomed.

Ending Homelessness is a community affair

A man living in an apartment funded through Calgary's 10 Year Plan to End Homelessness described his 20 years of being homeless as a darkness he couldn't escape. "And then an outreach worker asked me if I wanted a home," he said. He laughed because he believed it was impossible. The outreach worker disagreed. It was possible.

A year later he describes his new state of being. "I'd lost me in the darkness," he said. "I had no pride. And now, I'm proud of me. It's not easy, but it's sure a lot better than where I was."

Sometimes, we look at others and wonder, "What is their problem? Why don't they clean up? Get a job?"

The path in and out of homelessness is complex and challenging. So challenging that when offered a home, this man was unable to say 'yes,' at first.

A MESSAGE FROM YOUR COUNCILLOR DRUH FARRELL WARD 7

ward07@calgary.ca

Canada Anti-Spam Legislation

I hope you find time to soak up the lazy days of summer and enjoy Calgary's many summer festivals and activities.

As the bustle of September approaches, we would like to continue to keep you informed on what's happening in Ward 7. Due to the new Canadian anti-spam laws, we require your consent to keep in touch. From critical flood information to Crowchild Trail expansion updates, we limit our communication to important City issues and promise not to overload your inbox.

If you are already on our email list, simply send an email to Ward07@calgary.ca and request continued updates. You can join our list by visiting druhf Farrell.ca and clicking on the Contact Ward 7 button to fill out the form. For more frequent updates, "like" Druh Farrell on Facebook and follow @DruhFarrell on Twitter.

We value our ongoing relationship with the residents of Ward 7 and look forward to communicating with you. It's always nice to see and hear from you.

Ending Homelessness cont'd

That's why we are working together as a community to find our collective 'yes.' We're making space in our neighbourhoods to help those in the darkness of homelessness find their way home.

Emergency shelters are needed but they're not a long-term solution. The long-term solution is matching people with the kind of housing and support they need. From the stability of a home, they are better able to work on the issues that led to their homelessness.

Nestled between the Rocky Mountains and the grassy plains of the prairie, Alberta's Historic Cowboy Trail stretches over 700 km along Highways 5, 6 and 22, from Cardston, in the southern part of the province, north to Mayerthorpe, north-west of Edmonton.

Each turn on the trail promises something new – something interesting. Cattle are herded and tended against a beautiful backdrop of rugged mountain scenery. Along the way, you may encounter rodeos, festivals, pow-wows, and western-themed attractions including museums, old west towns, pioneer villages, a World Heritage site and National Historic sites.
